

Fasken Martineau is a proud sponsor of the 2005 Philip C. Jessup
International Law Moot
Court Competition.

A leading Canadian-based international law firm, Fasken Martineau knows well that the changing needs of business today demand a law firm that goes beyond borders as well as the bounds of tradition and convention. Far beyond.

It has shaped how we practice law and how we serve our clients, operating here in Canada and elsewhere in the world.

Fasken Martineau offers:

Global reach.

On the ground coverage across Canada and in New York, London and Johannesburg, making Fasken Martineau the only Canadian firm to have an office on the African continent.

Integrated legal advice.

Assistance with business and legal challenges faced when operating in multiple jurisdictions, including developing countries.

Seamless service that knows no borders.

Strategic advice from multi-jurisdictional practice teams, bringing together lawyers from all offices, and with differing areas of expertise to help clients achieve their business objectives .

Internationally recognized people and practices.

Seventy-six lawyers recognized in the Canadian Legal LEXPERT Directory with twenty-one ranked among the 500 leading lawyers in Canada. Fourteen partners cited in the prestigious Chamber's Global "The World's Leading Lawyers" Directory. A world leader in mining and mining finance with five in that practice named to the International Who's Who of Mining Lawyers.

We congratulate and extend best wishes to all competitors in their own quests for excellence on the international stage.
