

The Canadian Bar Association represents
all jurists in Canada.*

THE CANADIAN BAR ASSOCIATION
L'ASSOCIATION DU BARREAU CANADIEN

* Including students like you. As a national organization with branches in every province and territory, the CBA enhances the legal profession for us all with its advocacy work. But only members profit from our full suite of branch and national services. From mentoring and career development, to networking with firms and young lawyers, to insight into the full scope your law degree offers you, the CBA supports you through these exciting, yet challenging, years. Students also benefit from insurance and financial products offered by CBIA and CBAF and members-only rates on wireless services, travel, and more. So, check out how to get involved with your professional association. Become a member today, and benefit throughout your entire career.
