

Fasken Martineau is proud to sponsor

the 2010 Philip C. Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition

A leading Canadian-based international law firm, Fasken Martineau knows well that the changing needs of business today demand a law firm that goes beyond borders as well as the bounds of tradition and convention. Far beyond.

It has shaped how we practice law and how we serve our clients, operating here in Canada and elsewhere in the world.

Fasken Martineau offers:

Global reach.

On the ground coverage across Canada and in London, Paris and Johannesburg, making Fasken Martineau the only Canadian firm to have an office on the African continent.

Integrated legal advice.

Assistance with business and legal challenges faced when operating in multiple jurisdictions, including developing countries.

Seamless service that knows no borders.

Strategic advice from multi-jurisdictional practice teams, bringing together lawyers from all offices, and with differing areas of expertise to help clients achieve their business objectives.

Internationally recognized people and practices.

77 lawyers recognized in the Canadian Legal Expert Directory with 20 ranked among the 500 leading lawyers in Canada. 33 partners cited in the prestigious Chambers Global The World's Leading Lawyers Directory. Ranked as the number one firm worldwide for mining legal expertise for the past five years in The International Who's Who of Business Lawyers. Thomson Reuters place Fasken Martineau at or near the top for both announced and completed Canadian transactions for the first three quarters of 2009 M&A rankings.

We congratulate and extend best wishes to all competitors in their quest for excellence on the international stage.
